

Class of 2026 Board Member Biographies

Bridget Cantrell

Attorney, CLLB: Attorneys at Law

Bridget began her career in corporate mergers and acquisitions with Hogan Lovells before joining CLLB: Attorneys at Law in 2022, where she focuses on estate planning, probate, guardianships, and business law. Licensed in both Indiana and Kentucky, Bridget works with families to create estate plans that protect their assets and loved ones.

Born in Louisville to immigrant parents from England and Germany, Bridget studied at several international universities before earning her Bachelor of Science in Political Science from the University of Louisville and her Juris Doctor from Michigan State Law School.

She serves as Attorney for the Town of Lanesville, Treasurer for the Southern Indiana Estate Planning Council, President of the Floyd County Bar Association, and provides counsel to the Harrison County Community Foundation and Highlander Fire District.

Bridget and her husband, Joel Yorimoto, share their home with several rescued cats and chinchillas. She enjoys travel, art collecting, hiking, and home improvement projects.

Travis Jagers

Vice President of Investments, Raymond James

Travis is a seasoned financial professional with over 25 years of experience in the investment industry. A Pewee Valley native and graduate of Centre College with a degree in economics, Travis began his career at Morgan Stanley in 1999, later joining Wells Fargo and then Raymond James in 2014, where he currently serves as Vice President of Investments in Louisville, KY.

Travis works with individuals, families, businesses, and nonprofits to develop strategic financial plans and sustainable investment strategies. He has extensive experience advising nonprofits on donor engagement, fundraising growth, and legacy planning, collaborating with boards, employees, and major donors to strengthen organizational impact.

An active community leader, Travis serves on the boards of KYFREE and the Eftspan Foundation and has previously served with the American Cancer Society. His passion for nonprofit work is deeply personal, inspired by the compassionate care his mother received during her battle with cancer.

Travis lives in Louisville and enjoys woodworking, stained glass projects, and outdoor activities. He is honored to support the mission of the Charitable Gift Planners of Kentucky, bringing his expertise in finance, strategy, and philanthropy to further its community impact.

Christopher L. McGown

Co-Founder & Principal, Peak 9860

Chris has worked in non-profit development for more than 30 years, with much of that time at The Salvation Army. He has worked in every area of development, with longer stints in Planned Giving and team leadership. He has managed a personal portfolio of donors as well as teams of professional fundraisers.

With the belief that when the non-profit community is strengthened, every non-profit benefits, Chris has also consulted both professionally and in a volunteer capacity with a variety of non-profit organizations including special needs youth groups, character building programs, animal care organizations, and churches.

Chris holds a bachelor's degree education, a master's in psychology, a master's in marketing and a Juris Doctorate.

His other accomplishments include being a published author, an Eagle Scout, and an all-around great guy. He lives in Louisville, Kentucky with his beautiful and patient wife, Angela, and his youngest son. His oldest son is in college in Maine.

Emily Monarch

Director of Gift Planning, Community Foundation of Louisville

Emily joined the Community Foundation of Louisville in 2024 as the Foundation's Director of Gift Planning. She helps donors make meaningful impacts through philanthropy during their lifetimes and long after they are gone. With over a decade of experience in estate planning and administration, Emily understands the importance of helping individuals leave enduring legacies for future generations.

A Summa Cum Laude graduate of Transylvania University, Emily earned her law degree—finishing second in her class—from the University of Louisville Brandeis School of Law. She clerked for the Honorable Charles R. Simpson III of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Kentucky before establishing Elder Law Solutions, PLLC, a firm focused on assisting families with the legal and financial challenges of aging and disability.

Emily and her husband, Will, have three children and enjoy entertaining and traveling together.

Mark Snyder

Senior Investment Advisor, PNC Institutional Asset Management®

As a senior investment advisor Mark is charged with maintaining strong relationships with clients. He regularly provides thought leadership, education and insights to clients regarding both charitable and retirement assets. He manages portfolios in accordance with applicable fiduciary standards and the client’s investment objectives. He works with each client to determine asset allocation based upon their unique needs. He also supports the development of new business relationships.

Mark has extensive experience in developing customized solutions for non-profit organizations as well as Colleges and Universities and governmental entities.

Mark graduated with a Bachelor of Science in business administration and finance from The Ohio State University. He is an active member of the Charitable Gift Planners of Kentuckiana council and serves on the Planned Giving Committee of his church, St. Margaret Mary Catholic Community in Louisville.

2026 Officers of the Board of Directors

PRESIDENT

Shannon Kisselbaugh

Park Community Credit Union Foundation

PRESIDENT-ELECT

Andrea Stevens

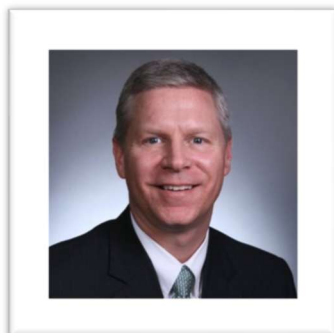

Presbyterian Church Foundation

SECRETARY

Melanie Douglas

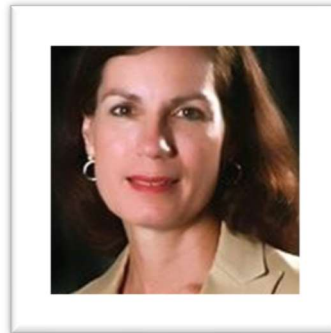

Province of Our Lady of Consolation

TREASURER

Mark Snyder

PNC Institutional Asset Management

IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT & BOARD DEVELOPMENT

Kathryn Sides

University of Louisville